

Name: _____

Teacher: _____

Color the scene. Every time you read a book, cut out a snowflake and glue it on the scene.

Read a book about snow	Read to someone who lives in your house	Read with your mittens on	Read a fictional story that takes place in the winter	Make a pillow fort and read in it	Read while sitting near a window	Read out loud	Make a blanket fort and read in it	Read under a bed	Read a book about the seasons	Read to someone older than you
------------------------	---	---------------------------	---	-----------------------------------	----------------------------------	---------------	------------------------------------	------------------	-------------------------------	--------------------------------